Pierian Muses

“Blessed are the ones whom the Muses love;
sweet is the sound that flows from their lips.”

from Homeric Hymn to the Muses and Apollo

Capture the romance and history of ancient Greece with this spectacular pendant reproduced from a 1903 original. The Muses were the heavenly choir that presided over poetry, music, and inspiration. Depicted in long, flowing robes, each Muse represents a different attribute – Calliope: Muse of Eloquence; Clio: Muse of History; Thalia: Muse of Comedy; Urania: Muse of Astronomy; and others. Subject to availability. Pierian Muses also shown on page 32.
